

Numerous Bachelor-students were interested in the lecture „The education of students with sensory, motor and intellectual disabilities: the case of Ethiopia“. At the end of the first week (daily lectures from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.) 70 students took part in the final test on July 6 2012 (picture 1).

Professor Tirussew in his seminar for Master-students on „Early intervention strategies for children with disabilities in developing countries“ (picture 2).

